Nationwide Private Client Insurance Now Offers Coverage in Georgia

Scottsdale, Arizona – Nationwide Private Client insurance products and services are now available in Georgia. Customized solutions from Nationwide Private Client insurance for home, auto, collections, personal excess liability, secondary residences and additional exposures are now accessible in 30 states, with plans to continue expansion through 2017.

“The launch in Georgia furthers our expansion into the southeast,” said Molly Rondeau, vice president of national sales, underwriting and risk solutions for Nationwide Private Client. “We are excited to bring our superior coverages and expertise to this important market, helping meet the insurance needs of affluent individuals and families.”

Private Client products and services are designed specifically to address the needs of the affluent market with superior coverage for home, auto, collections, personal excess liability, secondary residences and additional exposures. Clients enjoy the financial stability of Nationwide, a Fortune 100 company with superior credit ratings. Nationwide also offers the agility and responsiveness of a broad network of insurance professionals who provide concierge claim service and one-on-one support from risk solution advisors.

Nationwide is committed to building lasting partnerships with its network of carefully selected independent agents by providing a limited distribution model centered on profitable growth opportunities, high franchise value and a real-time policy rate, quote and issuance platform.
