Notification of Binding Authority Suspension Modification in California (Flood)

Effective: Immediately

September 27, 2019

Dear Agency Partner,

Due to potential flooding, binding remains suspended for flood property exposures for Nationwide Private Client (underwritten by Crestbrook Insurance Company) for the coverage listed below in the following California counties and zip codes:

Butte, Sutter, Yuba

90263, 90265, 90290, 91301, 91302, 91304, 91307, 91364, 91367, 92883, 92530, 92532, 93101, 93103, 93108, 93023, 93001, 93003, 93060, 94558, 94515, 95401, 95403, 95442, 95476, 94558, 95452, 95405, 95425, 95492, 95448, 95415, 95409, 95405, 95404, 95470, 95469, 95422, 95423

Flood Coverage

Binding authority remains suspended for any new flood coverage (Endorsement P8046) as well as any changes to existing flood coverage in the counties and zip codes above.

Please be advised that, while our policy issuance system does not restrict the coverage from being selected, you do not have the authority to bind or modify any flood coverage. It is important that you make your team aware of the binding restriction to ensure you do not violate the suspension.

Binding Reinstatement

Effective immediately, the flood property exposure binding authority has been reinstated for Nationwide Private Client (underwritten by Crestbrook Insurance Company) in all other California counties and zip codes not listed above.

If you have any questions, please feel free to reach out to your Territory Sales Director or the Private Client Solutions Center at 855-473-6410.

We truly appreciate your partnership, and on behalf of the entire Nationwide Private Client team – we thank you for your business.

Regards,

Your Nationwide Private Client Team
